

PAVEMENT RECYCLING WORKSHOP SACRAMENTO REGION - AGENCIES

Workshop Summary and Topics

Full-Depth Reclamation (FDR), Cold-In-Place-Recycling (CIR), and Cold Central Plant Recycling (CCPR) basics will be discussed as well as recent local project updates, construction-related matters, and experiences from both the contractor's and consultant's perspective.

Topics: Updated Caltrans Design Methodology, An Estimator's Insight on Bid Docs, Sulfates, Wet Soils, Plasticity/Expansive Soils, Existing Structure Considerations, CIR, Overall Community & Environmental Impacts

Who Should Attend?

County and City engineers, Caltrans District 3/HQ, geotechnical engineers, pavement engineers, maintenance workers, inspectors, project managers, lab support consultants, field consultants, and more.

Presenters:

Dennis McElroy - Graniterock
Marco Estrada & Sharon Groesbeck – Pavement Recycling Systems
Carlton Allen, P.E. – Associate – Bennett Engineering Services
Aaron Bedal, P.E. – Senior Engineer - TRC
Tyler Bodnar, P.E. – Director of Geotechnical Markets – CNCA
Clay Slocum, P.E. – Director of Engineering – CNCA

Join us for a FREE one-day seminar brought to you by:

What:
Partial & Full Depth
Recycling:
Using the Urban Quarry

When:
10 am – 2 pm
Sep 29th, 2022

Lunch Provided!

RSVP To:
clay.slocum@cnccement.org

LOCATION:
City of Citrus Heights
City Hall
6360 Fountain Square Dr.
Citrus Heights, CA 95621